Dear Friends,

Thank you so much for your recent generous gift to assist victims of human trafficking through The A21 Campaign. Your contribution will help rescue, restore and rebuild the lives of girls that desperately need both physical and emotional freedom.

The progress, favor and open doors we have seen with The A21 Campaign have been phenomenal! We are regularly assisting victims by providing them the safety and security of the A21 shelter as well as returning them safely to their families, providing medical care, and legal assistance, and working with police to help identify traffickers.

While statistics say 99% of victims of human trafficking are not rescued – we are committed to the abolition of this injustice, and helping see lives restored! Thank you for putting up your hand to make a difference with us.

Together we can be the change!

Yours for Justice,
